

Form 4

Fit and proper person declaration

If you are applying for a labour hire licence under the Labour Hire Licensing Act 2017 (Qld) (the Act), or are a proposed nominated officer or executive officer to an application, the Chief Executive will need to determine that you are fit and proper to provide labour hire services.

The Fit and proper person declaration must be completed as part of the application process.

Matters relevant to determining whether a person is fit and proper are set out in section 27 of the Act and in various provisions of the Labour Hire Licensing Regulation 2018 (Qld).

Completing this declaration

Section 15(a) of the Act requires each of the following persons to be fit and proper:

- each applicant (including where the applicant is a corporation)
- proposed nominated officers
- each executive officer (if the applicant is a corporation).

Each of the above people must complete this declaration.

The applicant is required to retain a signed copy of this declaration for each person. The applicant must be able to provide copies of this declaration to the Office of Industrial Relations if requested.

This declaration must be answered with true and correct information. It is a serious offence to provide false and misleading information.

Answering 'yes' to questions in the Fit and proper person declaration

Where a 'yes' answer has been provided to one or more of the fit and proper questions closer consideration will be given to an application.

A 'yes' answer will not automatically result in a determination that you are not fit and proper to provide labour hire services, but is likely to require further review about the circumstances of that answer to better inform a decision about the fit and proper status of the person.

Further information

The Act allows the collection of personal information to assess the suitability of each person to provide labour hire services and to assess compliance with the Act.

Personal information will only be provided to other persons or agencies with the permission of the relevant person or where permitted or required by law.

Further information about the Fit and proper person declaration is available at labourhire.qld.gov.au. If you require assistance in completing your declaration please phone 1300 576 088.
